EXAMINER'S STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Instant claims as presented in response dated 1/27/09 disclose polyurethane nanocomposite, wherein the silanol groups present on clay component form covalent bond with isocyanate compound, wherein isocyanate compound is utilized as intercalating compound.

Art Unit: 1796

Although instant claims are composition claims the process disclosed therein does provide a structural limitation that were not reflected in the prior art of record.

In the teachings of the prior art, the bond formed was between clay and polyol, which then is reacted to form polyurethane. Therefore there is structural difference between the disclosure of record and the disclosure of the prior art.

During updated search the examiner found another disclosure (WO 03/059817 to Lindsay, which disclosure also teaches incorporating polyol into clay platelets then reacting so formed intercalate with isocyanate. This art is therefore cited as art of interest only.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
